Forecast For Northwest England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Thursday 01 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Mostly fine and dry, with scattered showers Friday.

This Evening and Tonight:
A fine end to the day for many, especially in the west. Low cloud building up in the early hours of the morning, with mist and fog patches possible. Warmer than last night for some, especially in the north. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Friday:
A cloudy start but turning brighter throughout the day. A scattering of showers, some heavy, developing from the late morning onwards. Feeling warm in the sunshine away from any rain. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Feeling muggy with a mix of sunny spells and widespread showers throughout this period. Risk of hail and thunder in some of the showers, likely to be heaviest on Sunday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.